Opened in 2005, this modern indoor/outdoor bar at one end, with its own snack and pizza menu $8-$12, and restaurant at the other, boasts not only a quiet, stunning water's edge location, but good food at reasonable prices. The constantly changing blackboard specials might tempt you to start with duck liver parfait, toasted sourdough and caramelised fig $14 followed by chicken and vegetable pie, celeriac puree and rocket salad or veal shank on potato mash $24. But leave room — the deliciously decadent Valrhona chocolate pudding, creme anglaise and caramel icecream $13 should not be missed. And neither should Sunday brunch. Entrees $12, mains $23, desserts $10.
